CAPT. DIAMOND INDICTED.

Vredenburg and Gannon Before Grand Jury, and Jerome in Possession of New Evidence.

Thomas J. Diamond, of the Grand Jury to-day.

The law is moving swiftly and in the cases of corrupt and debauched police officials. Following the indictment for extortion of Wardman and Capt. Diamond's right hand man, comes the indictment of the commander himself.

Among the witnesses summoned this afternoon by Justice Jerome to a secret inquiry held in his chambers were Capt. Vredenburg, of the Oak street station; Capt. Gannon, of the East Twenty-second street station, and a half dozen policemen from the Tenderloin. This is taken to mean that Diamond is not the only police official whose alleged misdeeds will be inquired into by the Grand Jury.

The indictment was handed in Jeferson Recorder Goff at 1:15 o'clock this afternoon. It charges Capt.
Diamond with neglect of duty in that he failed to suppress the disorderly house of Lena Schmidt, at No. 27 Suyvesant street.

Paroled Until To-Morrow.
Accompanied by his counsel, Henry W. Unger, Capt. Diamond entered the Recorder's court at 2:45 o'clock.

FACTS CONCERNING
CAPT. DIAMOND.

He is the youngest Captain on the force.

He is backed by the Republican machine.

He was born and reared in the East Fifth street precinct.

He was made a Captain by Commissioner Hamilton April 16, 1900.

He served successfully in the Newtown and Delancey street stations.

He took his present command in November, 1900.

He has caused the arrest of over ten thousand disorderly women.

He has the "second best" precinct in New York.

He has been in continuous trouble with reformers.

He is a hard fighter, and will make it interesting in court.

Assistant District-Attorney Gans was in consultation with Recorder Goff.

"Your Honor," said Mr. Unger, "we understand that an indictment has been found against Capt. Thomas J.
Diamond, of the police force, and we have come into court voluntarily to surrender him."

"Let the matter rest in statu quo until to-morrow morning," said Recorder Goff.

Mr. Gans appeared to be surprised.

He started for the rear part of the room, where stood Detective Robert McNaught with a warrant for the arrest of Capt. Diamond in his pocket.

"I suppose," said Mr. Gans, as he retired, "the instructions of the Court will allow us to serve a warrant?"

"It is not necessary," retorted the Recorder. "Just let the matter rest as it is until to-morrow morning."

Capt. Diamond and Mr. Unger hurried from the room. Detective Mc-Naught said that in view of the instructions of the Court he would not serve the warrant. Capt. Diamond is free until to-morrow morning, when he will be formally arraigned.

Lena Schmidt Testifies.

It was announced this morning that the Grand Jury would take up the case, and for a short time the Whitney matter was relegated to the rear. Lena Schmidt, who gave Ward-man $500 for permission to run a disorderly house and then told about it, was one of the first witnesses to arrive at the Criminal Courts Building. She was accompanied by Rea Greenberg, a corroborating witness.

Following them came a number of Parkhurst agents, some patrolmen

CUTS OFF HER SON.
The will of the late Louisa Wach-enheim, of No. 153 East One Hundred and Third street, filed for probate to-day, cuts off her son Edward with a bequest of $1. The remainder of the estate Mrs. Wach-enheim divides between her other three children.

ALLEGED SMUGGLERS HELD.
Alphonse Denter, Peter Lorenzard and Joseph Heck, firemen on the Red Star liner Kensington, accused of smuggling tobacco, were to-day committed to Ludlow Street Jail for action by the Grand Jury.

ACCUSED OF THEFT.
Yashburg Horton, of No. 165 Park place, Brooklyn, was held in $5,000 bail for trial to-day in the Centre Street Court charged with a series of thefts from Max Sigler, a wholesale dealer in silks at 23 Franklin street. Horton is a salesman who has been visiting Sigler for months to sell him goods.

WOMEN COMPLAIN OF GARRAGE.
A delegation from the Women's Health Protection Association waited on acting Mayor Guggenheimer to-day to complain of the large amount of garbage that strews the adjoining beaches. Mr. Guggenheimer promised to take action.

SUICIDE IN THE WOODS.
The body of an unknown man was found hanging in Maurice Woods, at Newtown, to-day. The man was about forty-five years old, had sandy hair and weighed 140 pounds.
The body was taken to the Morgue.

THE WEATHER.
Forecast for the thirty-six hours ending 8 P. M. Wednesday for New York City and vicinity: Partly cloudy to-

Just a delectable Boston dish.
Juicy, rich and brown.
Crisp and nice as one could wish—"Taste 'em all way down!"
Just one way to fix 'em right.
Catsup, just a sup.
Salt a little—out of sight—See us eat 'em up!

And one thing certain is that if Davis's hungry old Giants don't believe their appetites this week on Boston baked beans they are apt to starve to death. Nothing easier to loom up on the Polo Grounds horizon for some time to come.

Nobody doubts that Davis's men are pretty nearly famished. They are getting long and lean and hollow looking.
Their best friends hardly know them nowadays. When they look at the percentage column in the newspapers and realize how long it is since they hit off a piece the snarling at their tongues hang becomes so acute that their tongues hang out. And even a bunch of coyotes will fight when real hungry!

It developed to-day that Davis and Van Halten were really soundly in Philadelphia as to their willingness to join the American League next season.

It was also intimated that Ganzel might get a good offer if he expressed any desire to change his allegiance. The two players who were approached out this proposition off short by an abrupt refusal to consider such a step, and when Ganzel heard of it he said:

"I wouldn't leave the New York Club if they handed me $5,000 on a gold platter."

The rumor that Ganzel would be sent to first base for an experiment proved to be untrue. The line-up to-day was the same as usual. There is no good reason for relegating John to the bench. In morning practice John is lining the ball out in great shape, and Manager Davis believes he will show splendid stick work from now on.

To move Hickman from the field again would be only a step deeper into folly.
He is just beginning to get used to his surroundings again. Who knows he could play first base anyway?

New Pitcher Tried.

Young Leitner, the new mule pitcher, tossed "em up for the boys in practice, and there is much more likelihood of his "pawing out" than in the case of Deagan.

Leitner is short, but strong and wiry.

OLD JOE PATCHEN
IS BADLY BEATEN

(Special to The Evening World.)
BRIGHTON BEACH, Aug. 13.—Old Joe Patchen was ignominiously beaten in the first heat of his match race with Anaconda. The time of the race—2:07—can be taken to show how badly beaten was the old campaigner, when Anaconda's best record is 2:02 1/2.

Patchen lost ground from the start, and when the three-quarter pole was reached he was twenty-five lengths back. Driver Trout then eased up on his horse and won by fifteen lengths, thus saving the old horse the humiliation of being distanced. The fractional time was 0:30, 1:01, 1:35, 2:07.

BRIGHTON BEACH RACE TRACK, Aug. 13.—New Yorkers do not take to the trotting at a pacing as they do to the running of thoroughbreds, for this afternoon, when the annual meeting of the New York Trotting Association began, there was not a very big crowd on hand. About five thousand were in the stand when the third race was run. The weather was not all that could be desired for trotting races, but with the advance of the day the sun began peeping out, a soft breeze blowing from the ocean and the track dried out.

There was not much to dry at that, for the track had been transformed from a runner's circuit of deep and dusty going to a hard, almost smooth, course, the only kind a side-wheeler or trotter can travel on safely.

The card for the day was as fine a one as New York lovers of the races have ever been offered. Owing to yesterday's

ROBBERS USE
DYNAMITE
ON TRAIN

Masked Gang Blows
Open Baggage Car—
Robs Passengers.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 13.—Passenger train No. 1 on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad was held up early to-day by five masked men, who boarded it at Caney, 1. T., where the train stopped for water.

The gang forced an entrance into the baggage car and express cars with dynamite, but it is not known how much booty they obtained. The American Express car is said to have contained only a small amount of money.

It was added that after looting the baggage car the robbers turned their attention to the passenger coaches and robbed the occupants. No statement as to the amount of the plunder is obtainable. When the robbers left the train it proceeded southward.

Caney is merely a water station and telegraph office, but couriers quickly notified the United States Marshal, who at once raised a posse and went after the robbers.

It is reported that two of them have been captured.

It is believed by the officials here that the robbers' mistake the local for the "Katy" flyer, which follows a little later. This train usually carries a large amount of money and many through passengers.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Aug. 13.—Seven men have been arrested in Caney bottoms charged with robbery of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas train. One is a section hand. The others are young men residing near by.

Part of the plunder has been recovered.

MRS. HALL GETS
HER DIVORCE.

Wife of Well-Known
Publisher Secures a Decree.

Justice MacLean, of the Supreme Court, to-day granted a decree of absolute divorce to Mrs. Helen Potts Hall from her husband, Blakeley Hall, a well-known newspaper publisher.

The decree was granted upon the report of a referee, and all the papers in the case were sealed with the exception of the decree, which states that the action was tried before a referee, who is not named, on July 12 last and that the plaintiff, Mrs. Hall, was represented by Frederick L. C. Keating, and that the defendant was not represented by counsel.

The decree goes on to say that the plaintiff having proved all her allegations, the marriage is dissolved and she is to resume her maiden name, Helen Potts, and that she is also permitted to make an application for permanent alimony at any time that she may choose to do so.

The decree also permits Mrs. Hall to marry and forbids Mr. Hall to marry during her life time.

Justice MacLean directed that all the papers be sealed, and that they be not opened, except upon the order of the Court or of counsel for both parties to the action or the written consent of both parties.

Mrs. Hall was formerly Helen Potts.
She was a popular actress and her stage name was Helen Standish. She is about thirty-eight years old, but looks much younger.

She met her husband about twelve years ago, while she was on the stage, and they were married a year afterward. She was then considered one of the prettiest women in the profession.

Besides her Boston Museum connection she supported Maud Granger and had the title part in a play called the "Fisher Maiden."

In this production Helen Standish appeared in her bare feet. Her photographs showed that her feet were more shapely than those of many of the numerous Tribes who followed in later years. She was a member of Augustin Daily's company for a time.

Claimed to Be Gilman Heir.
Mrs. Hall became widely known last spring by appearing as a claimant for the estate of George Francis Gilman, the eccentric millionaire, who died in his palatial home at Black Rock, Conn., in March. Mrs. Hall said she was Gil-man's adopted daughter. His wealth was placed anywhere from $20,000,000 to $75,000,000. The heirs fought the claim, and there have been various reports since regarding a compromise.

It was about three years ago that Mrs. Hall went as a guest to the Gilman mansion. She had difficulty with her husband, and there were rumors of a separation.

Woman of Tact.
By her tact, her good judgment and her mastery of small details, she soon became indispensable to Mr. Gilman.
Each week, it is said, she received a check from her husband for $5. But she was regarded as the mistress of the house.

She bought all the live-stock housed in his stables, and she drew up all the checks with the indefiniteness of the establishment were liquidated. Gilman had implicit faith in her, and frequently told his friends so. In fact, she had full access to his bank-books and knew the amounts on deposit in the various banks.

The divorce is not a surprise to the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hall. The reaction had been expected ever since their separation, although at the time the Gilman claim was first set up there was some talk of a reconciliation.

ACCUSED OF THEFT.
Yashburg Horton, of No. 165 Park place, Brooklyn, was held in $5,000 bail for
trial to-day in the Centre Street Court
charged with a series of thefts from

man who has been visiting Sigler for
months to sell him goods.

INDEPENDENCE
TO QUIT RACING.

NOT INVITED TO SAIL IN SOUND EVENTS.

Thomas Lawson's Boat Will Probably Go Back to Boston Again —Columbia and Constitution Take a Day's Rest and Prepare for To-Morrow's Race.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 13.—This was a drying day on the racing yachts. Both the Constitution and Columbia had all their sails spread out to the sun. The canvas was well soaked in the rain of yesterday, and it was thought it would take all day to get it back into shape again. This made it doubtful if either boat could take a spin. Officers and crews were prepared to get a rest and prepare for to-morrow's contest.

It seems to be now well settled that the Independence will set no more races this season. It is learned that she has not been invited to any of the events in the Sound, and it is considered probable that she will soon be taken around the Cape again to Boston.
